

The Club has a new bowpress.

This is essential for preparing a compound bow for maintenance and for some tuning steps. It fits all forms of compound bow.

If you have any questions about its operation or seek instruction in its use, please contact Allan McVicar or Roger Irving.

The acquisition of this equipment has been proudly funded by the NSW Government.